which created, when first danced by Cubas at Madrid.

THE WILDEST ENTHUSIASM,
the populace having insisted on bearing the Senorita home from the theatre in triumph, and lavishing on her the mos exuberent tribute of music and of flowers. El Ole represents perhaps in its most glowing form that intense passion which is the characteristic of the dance of Southers Spain, the very weeds of whose soil are hot and fervid. The Cubas will dance El Ole in the precise costume worn in Andaiusia or nights of feative dance, and impart to it all that rapture and abandon which belongs to this the most magnificent of the national dances of Spain.

THE AMERICAN MUSIC HALL

HAS THE FIRST OF EVERYTHING NEW.

Every artist of note seeking an opening in New York applies at once to us. If he is a superior and undoubtedly great performer, we engage him. When we have had him long cough to give all the city an opportunity of wincesaing his powers—in other words, when he becomes "played out"—we allow other managers the chance of making all they can be allow other managers the chance of making all they can be him, while we engage fresh talent and new attraction.

it, and that is why IS NIGHTLY GROWDED TO EXCESS.

IS NIGHTLY GROWDED TO EXCESS.

Let be only place of amasement in the city that is filled, even to "standing room," before the rising of the curiain.

A NO. 1

is the criterion we go by. We want no second class performers. The performer who is not an artist of unquestionable merit has no business in applying to us for an engagement.

WE ENGAGE ONLY FIRST CLASS PERFORMERS.

As long as they are attractive we keep them.
